Contextualisation

This is an elective course intended for students in the fields of Education and Social work who wish to improve their competence and gain confidence when using English in their respective academic and professional lives. By passing this subject, students will reach a B2 level in English, which is a requirement to successfully acquire a Degree in Education or Social work. Given its specific scope, this subject will primarily focus on the reading comprehension and writing of specialised texts in the areas of Education and Social work, although attention will also be devoted to speaking and listening skills in related contexts. The aims of this course are:

- To enhance the ability of students to understand scientific articles and books in English, especially in the field of Education and Social work.
- To familiarise students with the specific terminology in their area of specialisation.
- To make students capable of producing texts in English related to the professional fields of Education and Social work.

Language	English

- To improve students' oral skills in English in a work-related context, which will allow them to talk and discuss on Educational and Social work related issues.
- To enhance students' listening skills so as to make them capable of understanding a variety of registers, interviews, talks, and lectures on their fields.

According to the rules of the UIB, in order to obtain a Bachelor Degree students need to prove at the end of their studies a level of competence in English equivalent to a B2 level established in the Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR), as it has been established in the Degree's requirements of their respective curricula. In order to attain this knowledge, students must pass the specific English language course of their Degree. Students may also prove their English skills by means of:

- Presenting a valid certificate or recognized degree by the UIB, attesting the achievement of a minimum level of English equivalent to B2 established in the Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR). Please, see the following link for further information: http://estudis.uib.es/es/grau/coneix_idioma/Conocimiento-de-idioma-extranjero-en-los-estudios.cid215459
- Successfully pass the annual English test organised at the UIB. Please, see the following link for further information: http://estudis.uib.es/es/grau/coneix_idioma/Conocimiento-de-idioma-extranjero-en-los-estudios.cid215457
- Enrolling and successfully completing a number of English taught subjects in their Degree or in an Exchange Programme (18 credits). For further information, please see: http://estudis.uib.es/es/grau/coneix_idioma/

Requirements

Students are required to prove a minimum of B1 level in English prior to the beginning of the course. The student who does not have the B1 level of English proficiency (level that students must have successfully reached at the end of their secondary studies, and required to pass the University Entrance examination) must acquire this level before the semester starts. In order to do so, a list of resources for self-learning is provided in the References section of this teaching guide. In addition, this University is equipped with a Continuous Language Learning Classroom (C13) at the disposal of students. For more information about this Section and the resources available for students, please consult the following link: http://rrhh.uib.es/digitalAssets/137/137294_aulaangl.pdf

Essential requirements

This subject will be entirely taught in English. The materials of this course have been selected and designed keeping in mind the level descriptors of English B2 (CEFR) and, once approved, students will be therefore accredited with the corresponding English language mastery in the UIB.

The result of this test will represent 50% of the final grade (Grammar, Vocabulary, Reading Comprehension, and Listening Comprehension). Students will need to obtain a minimum score of 6 in this part in order to average out with the other papers (Writing paper, and Speaking Paper). Official dates for this exam, room and time are annually published by each Faculty. Both Writing paper and Speaking paper could take place at a different day, which will also be announced at the beginning of the semester in Campus Extens. The final exam will be recoverable in the extraordinary evaluation period (September). Both Portfolio Exercises and Speaking Paper will NOT be recoverable. The September exam will include the same parts as the Official exam, and the percentages allocated to each party will be also the same. You will need to obtain a minimum score of 6 in this part to successfully pass the subject. If a student fails to show up on the date and time established for any of these papers, they will receive a 0 (zero) grade. Failure to take an official exam (when applicable) will result in a "No Presentado" grade. Under no circumstances will the dates and times of the official exams be altered, with the only exception of those cases contemplated by the University of the Balearic Islands "Reglament Acadèmic" (when two exams on the same day coincide with a time difference of under three hours). Students will not be allowed into the room once the exam / session has already started. Mobile phones and other electronic devices are not allowed in the room. Plagiarism or misdemeanour behaviour (e.g. cheating) during these exams / sessions, will automatically qualify the student's assessment with a "Suspenso" (Grade 0).
Assessment	Portfolio activities assessment	Large group (G)	Students will have to perform two different portfolio activities during the course. This work will be assessed as a 10% of their final grade. It will not be recoverable. All work submitted by a student after the set deadline will have a grade of 0 (zero) in this part. Failure to attend these specific sessions, or 85 per cent of the whole semester, will involve a grade of 0 (zero) in this part. Plagiarism will immediately suppose a "Suspenso" (Grade 0) in the whole subject (not only in the piece of work where plagiarism occurs). Specific dates for portfolio activities and deadlines will be provided at the beginning of the semester in Campus Extens.
Assessment	Speaking Paper	Large group (G)	Evaluating the student's ability to communicate coherently in General English (level B2) and English-Specific tasks for Education and Social Work. Distance education work activities

Modality	Name	Description
Group or individual self-study	Distance Education Activities	Individual self-study or group tasks will be implemented in Campus Extens every week to encourage students' practice. These tasks will be related to the field of Education and Social work, as well as General English. Besides, extra learning activities will be proposed for Fast-Finisher students, and for Remedial Work, by means of weekly exercises and online tests, in order to reach the proficiency in English language established by the subject and the Degree.

Specific risks and protective measures

The learning activities of this course do not entail specific health or safety risks for the students and therefore no special protective measures are needed.

Workload estimate

At the beginning of the semester the subject schedule will be available to students through the UIBdigital platform. The schedule will at least include the dates of the official exam. In addition, the lecturer shall inform students about the dates in order to sit other papers (Writing and Speaking), and deadlines to hand-in portfolio activities in Campus Extens platform.

whether the subject work plan will be carried out through the schedule or through another way included in the Campus Extens platform.

Student learning assessment

Students will be assessed according to their performance in the following papers:

- A final exam (50%) consisting on Use of English, Vocabulary, Listening and Reading Comprehension to be held on the official date set by each Faculty.
- A Writing paper (20%) evaluating the student's ability to write coherently in General English (level B2) and English-Specific tasks for Education and Social Work. This paper will take place on a different date to be announced at the beginning of the semester on Campus Extens.
- A Speaking paper (20%) evaluating the student's ability to communicate coherently in General English (level B2) and English-Specific tasks for Education and Social Work. This paper will take place on a different date to be announced at the beginning of the semester on Campus Extens.
- Portfolio activities and in-class participation (10%).

REMINDER: Plagiarism will be penalised in accordance with the UIB Academic Regulation reproduced below: Article 32 "Amb independència del procediment disciplinari que es pugui seguir contra l'estudiant infractor, la realització demostradament fraudulenta d'alguna de les activitats d'avaluació incloses en l'avaluació d'alguna assignatura comportarà, segon les circumstàncies, una menysvaloració en la seva qualificació que, en els casos més greus, pot arribar a la qualificació de "suspens" (0,0) a la convocatòria anual. En particular, es considera un frau la inclusió en un treball de fragments d'obres alienes presentats de tal manera que es facin passar com a propis de l'estudiant."

Please, see the section "Methodology" for further details.
